The Sacred Practice of Caring: Partnering For A Healthy, Hopeful Future

September 7 – 10, 2018

St. Elizabeth Training and Educational Center, Erlanger, KY

Statement of Purpose/Objectives:
- Engage individuals nationwide who practice at the intersection of faith and health.
- Identify progressive approaches for collaboration to promote population health.
- Examine innovative concepts related to whole person health across life’s continuum.

HMAssoc.org
Message from the President:

It is with great pleasure that I invite you to join me at the 2018 Health Ministries Association Conference. This year will be the first “Back-to-Back” conference in the 29 year history of HMA annual gatherings, being held at the St. Elizabeth Training and Educational Center (SETEC) in Erlanger, KY. I am appreciative of the time and effort that the Annual Conference Planning Committee has dedicated to producing a solid and well-rounded educational opportunity. Using feedback from attendees at the 2017 conference, the group developed new and innovative learning opportunities, such as the Friday community immersion pre-conference. The annual planning committee has made a commitment to use trends inspiring us in our individual practices today to create a framework for the conference. I know you will be inspired by the concepts identified and the speakers who will help us to begin very important conversations.

The annual conference committee continues to raise the bar of our educational offerings, ensuring that there are topics for all leaders working in areas of faith and health. The conference will again offer an unparalleled opportunity to learn from nationally recognized speakers, exchange knowledge and network with peers. Networking with those who are passionate in our field – particularly those driven to innovate – has led me to realize the importance of our annual gathering this year. Our members and partners have continued to meet the challenges in our field and to excel despite setbacks. We should all be very proud of where we are today and excited about where we are headed. The Sacred Practice of Caring: Partnering for A Healthy, Hopeful Future is the perfect topic for us to address this year and build consensus on strategies to move the ministry forward.

And all of this takes place in the beautiful Bluegrass state! Fall is the perfect time to explore Kentucky, so be sure to check out regional and state-wide possibilities on the website. The SETEC Center is located just a few miles from the Greater Cincinnati Airport (CVG) with free transportation to and from the site. Our guests will find the Residence Inn and Courtyard by Marriott to be an oasis, with beautiful room arrangements you have come to expect. There are also centralized gathering spots at the hotels where you can catch up with old friends while making new ones. The networking will be great, and the subject is what’s next?

I encourage you to closely review this brochure because you will not want to miss out on any part of this year’s conference. This is a wonderful opportunity for ongoing formation of your practice and faith that can rejuvenate your work in faith and health. I look forward to seeing Y’all in Kentucky this fall!

Peace,
Marlene Feagan, President

I was very impressed by the professionalism of all the speakers. Great conference. Kudos to all who had a part in the planning.
- 2017 conference attendee
HMA is excited to bring the 2018 conference to the beautiful Bluegrass State again! As a gateway to the South, the northern Kentucky area is perfectly placed to offer southern hospitality alongside the dynamic riverfront region known as Cincinnati USA. For those who wish to extend their stay and travel in the area, there is much to see and do. From the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington to Churchill Downs - the home of the Kentucky Derby in Louisville, you can learn about the business of raising horses and have a personal experience with championship thoroughbreds.

Southwest of Lexington, you can visit one of the largest Shaker settlements in the U.S. and enjoy a faith-based experience. If adventure is on your agenda, you can explore more than 350 miles of Kentucky caves at Mammoth Cave National Park, the longest cave system in the world in western Kentucky. For history buffs, there are numerous Civil War sites, the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln or exploring the trails of early pioneer Daniel Boone to enjoy.

For more information on travel and tourism in Kentucky, please visit www.kentuckytourism.com.

Conference Site

We are excited to again hold the conference at the St. Elizabeth Training and Education Center (SETEC) in Erlanger, Kentucky, a state-of-the-art educational facility that opened in 2016. 2018 Exhibits

High visibility to exhibitors will be available to participants throughout this year’s conference. Both for-profit and not-for-profit organizations as well as government agencies have been invited to exhibit and several tables have already been secured. Exhibitors will offer a variety of resources relevant to your ministry. For complete information on exhibiting, please visit our Conference page.

Conference Sponsorships

HMA invites you to showcase your company or program at our 29th conference in Kentucky through conference sponsorship. A variety of sponsor package opportunities are available on our Upcoming Conference page.

Your support enables HMA’s vision to be realized by preparing a network of faith and health professionals to develop health ministries that bring needed resources to communities throughout the country. Your sponsorship also highlights for conference attendees your organization’s commitment to building healthier communities through collaboration with groups and individuals engaging faith with health.

All sponsors will be listed on the website, in upcoming newsletters and in the conference program.

The tour will include demonstration of simulation scenarios that might be encountered while caring for at risk populations in the community such as: de-escalation, therapeutic communication, and rapid response/code blue situations.

The entire conference ran smoothly and the space was accommodating for all activities – sessions, exhibits, mingling and social time. - 2017 conference attendee
Session One: Saturday, September 8, 2018
11:00 AM – 12:15 PM
1-A. Facilitating Mental Health, Physical Wellness, and Spiritual Well-being Through Nurse Coaching – Margaret Erickson, PhD, RN, CNS, APHN-BC
Our current healthcare system is based on a biomedical paradigm that focuses on curing and “fixing” physical health problems, specifically on treating illness and disease. Patients are routinely treated without consideration of their spiritual, emotional, psychosocial and cognitive wellbeing. This presentation will share insight on how nurse coaches support the patient as the primary source of information and driver of patient-centered care. By using a foundation of whole-person care, nurse coaches act as transformational leaders, within their communities, agencies, hospitals or institutions. In doing so, they facilitate patients/clients to achieve a maximal state of health and well-being.

1-B. Caregiving - A Sacred Mission: A Caregiver’s Journey With Lessons Learned – Tina Marrelli, MSN, MA, RN, FAAN
This interactive workshop will use a person-centered case scenario to demonstrate the integration of holistic and compassionate caring to provide “best care” at end of life for both the caregiver and the recipient. Various caregiving settings across the continuum of care will be addressed. Concepts of holistic compassionate care, concerns for lay caregivers, and identifying and supporting strategies to support family and friend caregivers will be discussed.

Session Two: Saturday, September 8, 2018
2:00 PM – 3:15 PM
2-A. Recovering Recovery – Barbara Akins, BSN, RN, BC-PMHN, Faith Community Nurse
Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) is an evidence based international training designed to teach participants how to recognize and assist someone who is developing a mental health problem or experiencing a mental health crisis. This presentation will relate how MHFA training was implemented in a six-hospital system as a staff development program. The program is now being brought to the community through education in churches. MHFA concepts and their impact on the community will be discussed.

2-B. User-Friendly Electronic Documentation: The Key to Recording Problem Assessment, Interventions, and Outcomes of Health Ministry – Dorothy Mayernik, MSN, RN, Amy Armanious, DNP, MSOL, RN, and Nancy Campbell Marshall, MA, BA
Faith community nursing is a relatively young specialty nursing practice. Insufficient documentation can be a barrier to demonstrating the effectiveness of the nurse’s practice. Documentation is a professional responsibility that both protects care providers and offers a method of communication regarding nursing interventions, patient education and outcomes. Learn how an effective and user-friendly documentation process can provide an opportunity to show both the value and impact of care to both client and community.

Session Three: Sunday, September 9, 2018
1:45 PM – 3:00 PM
3-A. An Introduction to Motivational Interviewing – Ellen Augspurger, MAT
Motivational Interviewing (MI) is an evidenced based communication style that is non-judgmental, non-confrontational and non-adversarial yet encourages positive behavior change. This presentation will introduce MI and how use of the four components of the ‘Spirit of MI’ as well as four essential skills can be helpful to faith community nurses and others working with clients seeking to change a behavior that is not consistent with their personal values or goals.

3-B. Upgrade Your Church-Faithful Families and More – Amy Hanson, RN, Joni Bitzer, MSN, RN, Faith Community Nurse, Charlotte S. Connerton, EdD, RN, CNE-BC and Sharon Sexson-Lyle, NP, MSN, Faith Community Nurse
The Faithful Families Eating Smart and Moving More Program promotes healthy eating and physical activity in communities of faith. During this panel presentation learn how a health ministry program coordinator, with grant funding, utilized this curriculum as a catalyst to create policy, system and environmental change within area faith communities in various settings. Data collection and measurement outcomes will also be shared.

Please note: Speakers are subject to availability. In the event that a speaker becomes unavailable, the conference planners reserve the right to schedule an alternate presenter while maintaining the integrity of the learning objectives.
Session Four: Sunday, September 9, 2018
3:30 PM – 4:45 PM
4-A. Women of Alabaster – Scarlet Hudson & Theresa Vietor, MSN, RN, SANE, CEN, NEA-BC
Human trafficking often goes undetected within healthcare and communities. This violent crime leaves a deep and lasting impact on quality of life and overall health. This presentation will provide an overview on this dilemma and how a faith based organization meets the needs of those caught in human trafficking by offering alternatives to a life on the streets. Dynamics of human trafficking, including the characteristics and health needs of victim-survivors and proven interactions will be discussed.

4-B. Outside the Box: Strategies for Positive Community Outcomes – Lelia Moore, BSN, RN-BC & Fran Pearson, MSW, LCSW, RN
This presentation will share how a Congregational Nurse Program partnered with a university Congregational Social Work Education Initiative to develop innovative strategies that have provided positive health outcomes for the underserved. Tools to demonstrate positive health needs and outcomes as well as evidence-based metrics to demonstrate impact, and provide opportunities to support value to health systems and funders will also be discussed.

Session Five: Monday, September 10, 2018
10:30AM – 11:45 AM
5-A. Bee Healthy Wellness Program – Anthony Williams, MGS, MBA, LNHA & Kelly Bonhoff, PhD, RN, MFT, CTP
Individuals residing in low-income housing settings often have greater health care needs and expenditures yet not much has been done to address this issue. This program provides an overview of a strategic partnership between healthcare agencies and a university aimed at integrating housing and healthcare to improve on the “triple aim” of reduced per capita health care costs, improved healthcare outcomes and improved patient satisfaction. Research on the link of low-income housing and health outcomes along with data on this successful program will also be shared.

5-B. BayCare Morton Plant Mease Pastoral Care Team Readmission Reduction Initiative (RRI) – Susan Fontaine, BSN, RN, Darlene Winterkorn, BSN, RN & Donna Kremer, MDiv, BSN, RN-BC
Faith communities are valued partners to reduce readmissions, utilizing untapped resources for pastoral care and faith community nursing teams to increase community support of high-risk discharged patients. This presentation will share how a hospital coordinated knowledge, training, skills and available human resources to effect positive outcomes for clients at the highest risk for hospital readmission. The resulting outcome was a cost-effective and sustainable best practice that exemplifies whole-person care while showing cost effective revenue for the health system.

Spiritual Offerings
Spiritual care opportunities will be woven throughout the conference time to help refresh and renew your spirit. We will begin and end each day of the conference with an intentional ‘Call to Prayer’.

Denominational Meetings
We have planned our schedule to accommodate requests for denominational meetings on Saturday evening at 7:00 pm. If you would like to schedule meeting space, please contact the HMA office. There is no charge for the space, but for planning purposes, please provide a contact person and an approximate number of people you anticipate attending.

I don’t think I had heard of any of the speakers prior to attending. I didn’t know what to expect. I’ve been a nurse for over 40 years. This was the BEST conference I have ever attended, and I have been to international professional conferences. - 2017 conference attendee
Hall of Excellence:
A Panel of Poster Presentations
Monday, Sept. 10, 2018, 8:45 am – 10:15 am

In 2017 after years of feedback from our annual conference poster presenters, HMA launched a new approach to the concept of a “poster presentation.” Designed to share programs of excellence, this format change was well received by conference attendees. We will again highlight five poster/mini presentations offered in a general session. Each presenter will have the opportunity to share their program then connect one-on-one with attendees afterwards.

We are excited to offer this format again and delighted that we received so many submissions. We know you will be pleased to learn from these colleagues who are willing to share their outstanding and diverse ministries!

Sole Care Ministry
Deborah Candace Dixson, BSN, RN-BC
The Sole Care Ministry developed as an opportunity to help individuals who may not have access to medical care, or may not be aware of chronic health conditions that need medical attention. Faith community nurses serve in this comprehensive ministry for the homeless that focuses on the importance of good foot health and how it can indicate unrecognized chronic health concerns when left untreated. Information on the process including foot assessments, patient education and outcome measurement will be provided.

Whole Person Health Across Life’s Continuum: The Annual Congregational Health Screening
Deborah Stankiewicz, MS, RN-BC, HTCP
A pivotal goal of faith community nurse practice is empowering members to be good stewards of their personal health resources. The annual congregational health screening involves screening labs and an entry point for members to establish a relationship with the FCN through follow-up consultations. The event also helps clients grasp the integration between faith and health and promotes continuity of care across the lifespan. Specific examples of health outcomes achieved over a 20-year period from one congregation will be shared. A description of an annual event and its value to promoting whole person health within congregations and the application to population health will be provided.

Change in the Face of Hurricane Harvey
Leslie Machickeck, BSN, RN and Kathy Wilson, RN-BC
This presentation will discuss how the devastation and aftermath of Hurricane Harvey dramatically changed the role of the faith community nurse in south Texas. The experience led to the formation of a health ministry team composed of a faith community nurse, a city official, first responders, church members, and pastors to prioritize population health in the event of a natural disaster. This collaboration established a progressive approach in educating and promoting the health and well-being of the community involved by sharing critical information and organizing resources. The team provided citizens with information to aid recovery efforts with a focus on mind, body and spirit.

The Power of Telling One’s Story
Sue Cox, BSN, RN-BC
It is said that telling one’s story is healing for the soul. A faith community nurse in an urban setting shares the effectiveness of engaging church elders and the community in a process of writing and verbally telling their life stories. The weekly sessions offer opportunity for healing through remembering, finding hope and wholeness through peer group reflection, and for creating emotional and spiritual wholeness. It has also helped to stabilize the congregation’s weekday senior program and created a strong sense of caring among participants, providing whole person care to a potentially isolated and vulnerable population.

(SBIRT): Substance Abuse Screening, Brief Intervention and Referral to Treatment
Felicia Stewart, DNP, FNP-C, RN-BC
Finding time to screen for alcohol or drug addiction, and depression can be very challenging for many health professionals. However, evidence exists that brief intervention services are effective in reducing heavy drinking. Additionally, results of the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration’s (SAMHSA) Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment (SBIRT) program in 6 states show reductions of heavy alcohol use, drug use, and improved levels of general and mental health at 6-month follow-up post screening. This presentation will share how the SBIRT program provides hope for faith communities to become part of the solution for addiction and mental health needs in our communities. The SBIRT model’s 3 questions to ask and 3 tools to use will also be discussed.
Saturday, September 8, 2018

Hall of Excellence Poster Session

12:30 pm – 1:45 pm
Peace Luncheon - The theme of our 2018 Peace Luncheon is based on how one’s faith has an impact on the addiction crisis. We are honored to have Pastor Greg Delaney, BS with us to present: A “Little HOPE” Changes Everything (Faith’s Response to the ADDICTION Crisis)

Pastor Delaney is the current Outreach Coordinator for Woodhaven Ohio, a Statewide Alcohol and Drug Treatment Center and is a frequent faith partner with/for the Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine’s Statewide Outreach on Substance Use, as well as Attorney General Patrick Morrissey of West Virginia’s Combating Addiction with Grace initiative. Greg is also the Hope Director for Reach for Tomorrow Ohio a non-profit community organization located in Highland County, Ohio where he leads a coordinated effort to educate churches, faith and community leaders about trauma and human trafficking.

Greg serves as both a presenter and contributor to the efforts of the Center for Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships in Washington D.C. He is also working with many of Ohio Governor Kasich’s faith-based initiatives to combat addiction and homelessness.

Greg is also the Founder and Recovery Coach for the Jeremiah Tree, a Greene County Ohio non-profit ministry dedicated to community assistance and recovery housing for men. He also serves on many boards including Ohio Citizens for Advocacy and Addiction Recovery; Greg is a graduate of Wright State University in Marketing.

1:45 pm – 3:00 pm
Round Table Discussions
Join your colleagues and enter into round table discussions facilitated by Pastor Delaney. Participants will gain ideas on applicable innovative faith and health concepts to improve their practice around the issues of opioid addiction.
