

Cari Moodie, BSN, RN

Cari is currently the Coordinator of the Faith Community Nursing (FCN) Ministry for the Saint Alphonsus Health System. She has been serving in this role for the past 8 years. Cari oversees over 120 volunteer faith community nurses that serve in over 20 ecumenical churches in Idaho and Eastern Oregon.

Cari also volunteers as a faith community nurse in her church. She has been a practicing faith community nurse for over 10 years

As a native Idahoan, she enjoys the outdoors, camping, walking, hiking and spending time with her family. She is a wife and mother to 3 beautiful children and enjoys attending their sporting and volunteering for school events.

Cari is extremely passionate about helping those in need in her community, promoting whole-person health, while keeping the intentional care of the spirit at the heart of her service.