SPECIAL NEEDS STATEMENT

Norton Healthcare is committed to making this conference accessible to all individuals. At the time of registration, please describe any auxiliary aids or services (identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act) needed. Advance notification of any special needs helps us better accommodate your needs.

GUEST FACULTY

Alyson J. Breisch, MSN, RN-BC, an ANCC-certified faith community nurse, serves as a consultant for nursing and health ministries education. Her special focuses include health ministries, professional faith community nursing practice, health promotion, nursing management and cardiovascular nursing. She has a master's degree in cardiovascular nursing, and holds post-master's certificates in health and nursing ministries, and as an adult nurse practitioner.

Breisch has spoken nationally and regionally on health ministries, faith community nursing, and the Faith Community Nursing Scope and Standards of Practice. She has led many spiritual enrichment and renewal workshops, has taught many foundational faith community nursing courses and co-facilitated Duke Divinity School's "Health Ministries Leadership" course. She is the former director of practice and education for the Health Ministries Association (HMA).

A member of United Church of Chapel Hill in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, Breisch has 17 years of experience in health ministries, including 15 years as a faith community nurse.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Registration fees are refundable if canceled prior to Friday, June 2. Substitutions will be accepted. Printing costs will be incurred after this time, so cancellations are not refundable after June 2. Should the sponsors cancel this conference, registration fees will be reimbursed in full. Norton Healthcare is not responsible for any other costs incurred by the participant.
