Doctoral Research Candidate seeking volunteers to participate in a research study

The Lived Experience of Self-Care of the Faith Community Nurse

Participants are needed for a doctoral nursing research study to understand self-care of faith community nurses who work in faith communities, organizations, or institutions.

To participate in this study, you must be:

- an adult older than 18 years of age
- available for an interview of approximately 30 minutes and no more than 90 minutes via web-based conference
- willing to be video and audio recorded during the interview
- a licensed Registered Nurse in your respective state
- currently work as a faith community nurse in affiliation with a faith community (church, temple, congregation, etc.), or faith institution (hospital, clinic, etc.) or faith organization (faith service provider, faith community organization etc.).

This study involves an interview via video conference with the researcher about your self-care as a faith community nurse and complete a demographic survey

All information received from you will be kept confidential.

Interested individuals are invited to call or text Linda Bradley at
